In an increasingly globalised economy, arbitration is becoming the dispute resolution mechanism of choice for international M&A transactions. Spanning share purchase agreements, asset purchase agreements, shareholder agreements and joint venture arrangements, this is a huge area of commercial activity, giving rise to an expanding number of disputes.

May 30, Since arbitration can ensure that the tribunal deciding on the merits will have the special expertise required for complex disputes such as those arising out of M&A deals, it is common for parties involved in such transactions to submit their disputes to arbitration.

Once the arbitration panel is assembled and the parties involved formally agree to abide by the panel's decision, the claimant pays for the arbitration fees and the arbitration begins. Arbitrators are usually very knowledgeable in the areas in which they arbitrate. Night Baseball Arbitration is a variation of baseball arbitration where the figures are not revealed to the arbitration tribunal. The arbitrator will determinate the quantum of the claim in the usual way, and the parties agree to accept and be bound by the figure which is closest to the tribunal's award. Arbitration is a legal process which takes place outside of the courts, but results in a final and binding decision similar to a courts . Arbitration can be initiated online or through any Manheim auction in the U.S. or Canada. Claims must be filed within the time periods defined by Appendix I of the NAAA Arbitration Policy.
