The Penthouse Serenade tracks naturally allow more space for the piano work, but even here Cole is not straining for invention. Nevertheless, the music is enjoyable, if in more of an easy listening sense than the pianist's '40s classics.8/

Penthouse Serenade is an instrumental jazz quartet album by Nat King Cole. It was released initially as a inch LP in September, , on Capitol Records. An expanded (12 track) version was reissued in and a 19 track version (being vocal tracks) was reissued in Genre: Jazz. The King Cole Trio, Vol. 2 is Nat King Cole's seventh studio album. The album was entirely made of instrumental songs, featuring no vocals. However, this album was released twice as well, and both of these releases of the album feature songs that Cole used vocals in.
