Embrace the joys of friendship. Friendships are vital to us. Research shows that people with good friendships have better immune systems and live longer and that having friends is more important to our happiness than having money. Celebrate the power of friendship with these nine novels that bring new meaning to the phrase Best Friends Forever and pick up two copies of each while you're at it, because these are books that you'll want to share with your best friend. If you had never come, the rain would feel so cold. I would have lived alone forever, with a secret never told. My tears would have no place to go, but down my cheeks in sorrow. I'd have my own clothes, instead of yours to borrow. If you had never come, my happiness would not have lasted. There would be no names upon my bright orange cast/5(). The Joy of Friendship is a tribute to those who enrich our lives with their support, strength, and laughter. Filled with inspiring stories of friendship, and uplifting quotations, it celebrates the joys of being a friend, the changing nature of friendship, the power of sustained friendships, and the vital part that friends play throughout every stage of our lives. ugweeklynews.com: Lois Blyth.

Many of their friends may have moved or passed away. If their spouse has died, they feel awkward going out with the couples they used to socialize with. They may have problems getting around, particularly if they no longer drive.
